

Jingdezhen Ceramic Experience – Teacher-Led Student Group Program

Winter, Spring & Summer Camps in the Porcelain Capital of the World.

Bring your students to Jingdezhen, China, for a unique cultural and artistic journey. Designed for teacher-led groups of 2–10 students (ages 15+), this program combines hands-on ceramic training with cultural immersion, museum visits, and guided tours.

Why Jingdezhen?

For over 1,000 years, Jingdezhen has been the heart of Chinese porcelain. Here, emperors once commissioned masterpieces, global artists continue to create, and entire communities live around clay and fire.

- Learn traditional and modern ceramic techniques
- Join professional workshops and demonstrations
- Explore museums, ancient kilns, and artist villages
- Experience Chinese culture through art, food, and daily life

Core Courses & Workshops

- Pottery Wheel Throwing
- Hand-Building Techniques
- Pottery Painting & Decoration
- Chinese Calligraphy & Fan Painting

Program Details

- Length: 1–2 weeks (flexible to match your school's schedule)
- Sessions: Winter, Spring, and Summer vacation periods
- Group Size: 2–10 students, with teacher chaperone
- Minimum Age: 15 years old (with teacher supervision)
- Housing & Studio: Custom arrangements based on group size and schedule
- Living Cost: approx. $100 USD per week (meals & daily expenses)
- Application Fee: $150 USD per student (non-refundable)
- Travel, personal expenses, and optional cultural tours are self-paid.

Housing & Facilities

- Shared furnished apartments with kitchens
- Air-conditioned studio spaces organized by discipline
- Easy access to groceries, markets, cafés, and workshops

Certificate of Completion

All participants receive an official certificate. Schools may arrange academic credit transfer if needed.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Q1. Who can apply?

Teacher-led groups of 2–10 students, aged 15+, are welcome. Each group must be accompanied by a supervising teacher.

Q2. How long is the program?

Standard duration is 1–2 weeks, but we can adjust based on your school's vacation schedule.

Q3. What does the fee include? What fee excluded?

Application Fee: $150 per student (non-refundable). Housing & Studio Access: custom arrangements based on group size and schedule. Living Cost: approx. $100 per week. Travel, personal expenses, and optional cultural tours are not included.

Q4. What courses will students take?

Students participate in hands-on workshops such as pottery wheel throwing, hand-building, ceramic painting, pottery decoration, and Chinese calligraphy.

Q5. Do students need prior ceramics experience?

No. The program welcomes all levels — beginners and advanced art students alike.

Q6. What optional activities are available?

Groups may add cultural excursions (extra cost): Imperial Kiln Museum & Taoyang Alley, Ancient Kiln Folk Museum, Sanbao International Ceramic Valley, Taoxichuan Art Market, Yaoli Ancient Town, China Ceramic Expo.

Q7. How safe is Jingdezhen for students?

Jingdezhen is a student-friendly city with affordable transport (taxis from $1, bikes & scooters common) and a vibrant yet safe art community.

Q8. What is the application process?

1. Fill out the online form and pay the application fee. 2. Submit group information and teacher details. 3. Provide student list and proof of enrollment. Invitation letters and visa support will be issued after approval.

Q9. Cancellation Policy

Tour payments are non-refundable if cancellation is made within 4 weeks of your scheduled arrival. However, the full amount can be credited toward a future trip to Jingdezhen.

Next Steps & Plan Your Trip

This student group program is fully customized. To begin, please provide: your departure city and preferred travel dates; an estimated group size (from 2 to 10 students); the main purpose of your study trip. With this information, we will prepare a comprehensive quotation tailored to your needs. Your selected courses and chosen cultural destinations will be included in the final proposal, ensuring the program fits your group's goals and expectations.

Contact Us

ChineseSources.org

□ B18, Digital Trade Industrial Park, 5th Floor, Taobo City, Changnan New District, Jingdezhen, China

□ Email: potteryshowcase@outlook.com

□ Phone: +86 189 1815 1538

□ WhatsApp: +1 (307) 533 6270

□ WeChat: fastbooking